HAZLETT MINISTRIES

Erica Greve Hazlett

Speaker Biography

---

Erica Greve Hazlett inspires audiences to turn courageous faith into compassionate action. An international speaker, nonprofit founder, social work professional, and advocate for children, she founded and led Unlikely Heroes, raising more than $9 million and establishing six homes for children rescued from sex trafficking in the United States, Mexico, Thailand, and the Philippines. She holds a Master of Social Work from the University of California, Berkeley, and has spoken at churches, conferences, TEDx events, and governmental gatherings.

Before founding Unlikely Heroes, Erica served as associate director of Jesus Culture and as a young adult pastor, speaking at more than 40 ministry events and equipping emerging leaders. Her work caring for vulnerable children and leading through adversity informs her messages on courageous faith, healing and restoration, leadership, and the church’s response to exploitation.

Audiences leave Erica’s sessions with renewed courage, practical insight, and a deeper commitment to live out their calling—transformed from compassionate observers into people prepared to take meaningful action.
